To Whom It May Concern:

I have had the good fortune of doing business with Kenneth Tucker and his construction companies for over 27 years. In my opinion the greatest compliment his company could be paid was that of dealing with an "issue" or "problem" in a job. They almost never occurred and when some thing did come up it was addressed and resolved immediately. Communication with customers so they understood the process was excellent, completion of a project typically ended with the customer feeling good about the process and the value of the product. I would recommend Denver Construction if considering construction needs.

Sincerely
